As regards what registers come under the proposed Rule, there may arise honest doubts. The Rule as worded is likely to lead to diversity of practice. Page 124 of the Digest gives the periods of preservation of Registers.

3) The question as to what registers should be detained in Court and what should be sent away to the Record Room is, I presume, meant to be left to the discretion of each Judge, to be exercised in accordance with the state of business in his Court. I think the Rule drafted may be approved.

S i r ,

I am directed to state that during the recent inspection of the Civil Courts in Mysore and Seringapatam by Mr. Justice Wallace, it was noticed that much space in the court record rooms was taken up by the old registers relating to cash, suits and cases, and that he then formed the opinion that it would be better and more convenient if these registers were sent to the Central Records. The other Judges being also of the same opinion, it is prpposed to issue the enclosed addendum to Civil Rule of Practice No.149 dated the 10th July 1911; and I am to request that the sanction of Government may be accorded to the same.
